

LARC SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS*

2017

Application deadline- May 12, 2017

The LARC Scholarship Award will be given to a candidate(s) for a Master’s degree in Library and Information Science who has met the criteria for entrance into a graduate library program accredited by the American Library Association or is already enrolled in such a program. A candidate must be a resident of Rockland County or work in a Rockland County Library. A candidate must also be a current LARC member. (Please download application, if necessary.)

The winner of the LARC scholarship will be given a monetary stipend reimbursement to help defray the cost of tuition paid for during the active period of the award. Funds will be dispersed upon receipt of current bursars receipt for class enrollment starting June 2017 through May 2018. Preference will be given to first time applicants. Candidates for the LARC Scholarship: Please complete Parts I, II-A, & III (2 letters of recommendation).

LARC will administer the granting of the Mary Patricia Brunsmann Library Scholarship Memorial Award. Similar criteria exist for the granting of the Brunsmann Award. Please complete Parts I, II-A, & III (2 letters of recommendation).

LARC will administer the granting of the Robert Trudell Public Library Education Scholarship. Similar criteria exist for the granting of the Trudell Award. Please complete Parts I, II-A, II-B & III (2 letters of recommendation).
